MURDER NEAR BROWNSTOWN

AUGUST STUCKWISCH SHOT BY HIS BROTHER, LEWIS.

He Then Carries His Brother Into The House and Nurses Him Till He Dies.

Yesterday evening about 6 o'clock

Lewis Stuckwisch who had been working for his brother August Stuckwisch, shot and killed the latter at his home about two miles east of Brownstown.

The men had been in Brownstown during the afternoon, and Lewis, at least, had been drinking a little too freely. On the way home August was riding in the wagon with Henry Vahl, and Lewis was driving his brother's team alone. As John Manion who was riding in a cart drove past them, Lewis began quarreling with Manion and calling him ugly names. August, who saw that serious trouble would likely follow, told his brother to keep quiet and then turned on him and began abusing him. August then told his brother that unless he could behave himself, he need not return to his house.

August seems to have driven on home alone with his team. Lewis soon followed and with an ax broke down the door which his brother had locked when he saw him coming. As he entered the front door, armed with a knife and ax, August and his wife ran out of the back door to get away. Lewis followed and as he ran through the house he picked up the shot gun standing in the corner of the room and following his fleeing brother out of the back door, shot him in the abdomen. Then beginning to realize the terrible thing that he had done he took his coat off, wrapped up his brother's wound, carried him into the house, and did what he could for him until he died about thirty minutes later.

The murdered man was about thirty years old and leaves a wife, his first wife and child having died some time ago. The murderer is about twenty-one years old and is single. He was arrested this morning at the home of another brother about two miles south of Brownstown and taken to jail at Brownstown about eleven o'clock this morning. He claims to know nothing at all about how the murder happened, and when questioned about it, he repeatedly disclaimed all knowledge of the affair. He was given a preliminary hearing this afternoon and was bound over to court.

Building and Loan Stock.

The Cooperative Building and Loan Association will start series "P" Monday, April 3, 1899, and descriptions for the stock are now being taken through the secretary, W. F. Peter. Many of our people know from experience the value of carrying building and loan association stock either as an investment or for the purpose of paying for a home. The small payments which may be made and the long time that the association gives on its loans makes them easily within the reach of anyone who really wishes to own his home. If you are not holding any stock at this time it will be to your interest to see the secretary at once and arrange with him for some shares in the new series.

The Delineator

Inspiration for many a pleasant home-gathering is furnished in An Easter-tide Evening, by Gladys Hyatt; and Her Birthday Party, by Edith Child, will suggest how the anniversaries may be recalled. A group of Household Subjects is embraced in A Week's Living No. 2, by Edna Witherspoon; The Possibilities of a can of Salmon, by Carrie May Ashton, and Dainty Buffet Lunches, by Helen Combs; the numerous pages devoted to millinery, lace-making, crocheting, knitting, the latest books, etc., are all interesting.

GEN. GOMEZ WILL ACT

On Plans Agreed Upon For the Distribution of the $3,000,000.

THE MILITARY ASSEMBLY

Will Be Dissolved by General Brooke If Session Disquieting to the Public Mind Continue—United States Military Authorities Publish a Statement—Havana More Quiet.

Havana, March 16.—General Gomez has decided to proceed with the plans agreed upon for distributing the $3,000,000 to the Cuban troops on disbanding, as though the military assembly did not exist. He conferred for two hours yesterday with Governor General Brooke regarding details.

General Brooke asked Washington several days ago whether in case he dissolved the assembly his action would be approved. The cable reply authorized him to dissolve that body if, in his judgment, such an act was necessary. He hopes the assembly will soon cease of its own accord to hold its sessions, but should sessions disquieting to the public mind continue, he will intervene.

Havana is much more quiet and less excitement is noticeable. This is partly due to the fact that the assembly held no meeting yesterday. Rumors are current that its self-dissolution is a matter of the early future. At a meeting yesterday the Cuban generals, Diaz Roban, Montegudo, Nodare, Peraza and others decided to join with General Pedro Betancourt, commander of the Cuban troops in Matanzas, in a public declaration of their position.

La Discussion understands that they will side with General Gomez. The papers continue to print letters and telegrams from all points declaring adherence to the veteran patriot's cause.

There are numerous fresh calls for the resignation of Civil Governor Mora and Chief of Police Merco Moncal because of their attitudes, the result of misunderstanding or otherwise, toward Monday's parade in honor of General Gomez, and the names of their successors are already suggested.

The United States military authorities published the following statement: "We are officially authorized to say that the president of the United States will not recognize any obligation incurred by the body known as the Cuban assembly, and that all reports and assertions to the contrary are absolutely untrue."

This is perhaps due to a story published in the newspaper, El Reconcentrado, to the effect that a representative of an American syndicate, including Senator Hanna, is now here with a view of making a loan to the assembly. There have been six resignations from the assembly since Sunday—Generals and Seniors Cespedes, Montegudo, Munoz, Leira, Moia and Tamayo.

OFFICERS ANGRY.

General Castellanos' Speech Not Relished by Spanish Military Circles. Madrid, March 16.—An extraordinary speech made by General Castellanos, the Spanish governor general of Cuba, who was recently appointed captain general of Madrid, to the soldiers during an inspection which he made of the barracks, has caused intense anger in military circles.

The captain general said: "There is only one thing good in the army and it is the soldier himself. As to the officers, if they are derelict in their duty I am accustomed to send them to the gallows."

The officers have demanded that the minister of war, General Polavieja, take action in the matter.

The cabinet council last evening decided that the treaty of peace with the United States should be ratified immediately.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

There is no word so full of meaning and about which such tender and holy recollections cluster as that of "MOTHER"—she who watched over our helpless infancy and guided our first tottering step. Yet the life of every Expectant Mother is beset with danger and all effort should be made to avoid it.

so assists nature in the change taking place that the Expectant Mother is enabled to look forward without dread, suffering or gloomy forebodings, to the hour when she experiences the joy of Motherhood. Its use insures safety to the lives of both Mother and Child, and she is found stronger after than before confinement—in short, it "makes Childbirth natural and easy," as so many have said. Don't be persuaded to use anything but

CUBAN ASSEMBLY.

The Organization May Be Allowed to Run Its Course.

Washington, March 16.—In considering what policy should be adopted towards the Cuban military assembly, the authorities have consulted Gonzales Quesada, the Cuban representative, who has advised that the assembly be allowed to run its course without molestation, as he holds that it has no strength outside of its own membership, and that any move to disband it would give the members an opportunity to appear as martyrs. This view has been accepted thus far and may continue, although General Brooke, being on the ground, has considerable latitude of action.

On a Secret Mission.

London, March 16.—Stanton Syckles, secretary of the United States legation at Madrid before the rupture of diplomatic relations, has been there, according to the correspondent of The Morning Post, for eight days on a secret mission.

They will go as the guests of the Panama Canal company, in accordance with an invitation extended on the last day of congress to representative Burton's committee on rivers and harbors and Senator Frye's committee on commerce. The party will have an ocean steamer to itself, and will sail from New York about March 23, and from Mobile April 1.

DEAD HEROES

Washington, March 16.—The following notice has been given to the press by Adjutant General Corbin: "The secretary of war requests that parents and friends of soldiers who were killed around Santiago or who have since died in Cuba, desiring their remains sent home send their home addresses to the quartermaster general, United States army, Washington. The remains upon arrival in this country will be sent by express to the address given. Otherwise the remains will be interred at Arlington."

San Jose Scale.

Washington, March 16.—United States Consul Roosevelt at Brussels has forwarded to the state department a copy of the decree issued by the Belgian government relative to the importation into Belgium of American fruits and plants. The decree declares that in view of the fact that San Jose scale has been found on American fruits, the importation of such fresh fruits and parts of plants can take place only at Antwerp, Ghent and Ostend, upon the production of certificates from competent authority. The importer is to pay the expense of expert examinations to be made by agents of the Belgian government.

Will Accompany Troops to Manila.

Washington, March 16.—Lieutenant Vitale, military attaché of the Italian embassy, has been granted permission by the war department to accompany troops from New York to San Francisco and thence to Manila, and to remain with the army during the campaign in the Philippines. He desires to study for his government the American method of land and sea transportation of troops, and to observe campaign methods in the islands.

CONDITIONAL DONATION

Joseph J. Irwin Gives Butler Bible College $25,000—Ex-State Geologist John Collett Dead—Pensions Granted Veterans—Charged With Perjury—Other State News.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 16.—A surprise in local financial circles was sprung here yesterday by the announcement of the retirement of J. F. Schell, president of the J. F. Schell Loan and Investment company. The company has been doing a large loan business, and recently moved into new quarters, fitted up at the expense of $3,000. The resignation of the president was demanded by the directors, composed of wealthy farmers, on the ground that the business has been conducted in a ruinously extravagant manner. W. S. O'Rourke was elected president. Mr. Schell came here three years ago and organized the company. Before his retirement he deeded his residence property, valued at $4,500, to the association. It is not alleged that there was any criminality on the part of Schell, but simply that the funds of the association were misused.

AMBASSADOR CHOATE

Banquetted by the Chamber of Commerce Association in London.

London, March 16.—Joseph H. Choate, the United States ambassador to the court of St. James, made his first public appearance in England at the banquet of the association of Chambers of Commerce of the United Kingdom, which was held at the Metropole hotel last evening. There was a brilliant and distinguished gathering, about 250 persons having been invited to meet the ambassador.

Mr. Choate, in responding to a toast "Our Guests," said in part:

"I have felt that I might properly avail myself of this first public occasion to express the appreciation of my countrymen for the forbearance, good will and friendship manifested to them so freely by the British people. It is true, gentlemen, that peace between the United States and Great Britain is the first interest not only of these two nations, but of the whole world."

In expressing his gratitude for the cordial greeting he had received from all sorts and conditions of men since his arrival in England, Mr. Choate said: "Everywhere I have been treated as a friend and as a representative of your friends and brothers. In fact, I have actually discovered the open door, open to such an extent as would satisfy even the yearnings of the rear admiral who has made the circle of the globe in search of it. I think I may say as a testimony to the good feeling sought to be encouraged on our side of the water, that the president gave the best illustration of it, when he said, in my letter of credence, that he relied with confidence upon my constant endeavor during my stay in Great Britain to promote the interest and prosperity of both nations."

Pleased With Choate.

London, March 16.—The morning papers editorially compliment Mr. Choate upon the success and brilliancy of his speech last evening. The Daily Telegraph says: "A speech in better taste could not be conceived. It was transparently sincere and cordial, without a suspicion of 'gush,' brimful of eloquence, humor and pathos, and however high the standard of oratory may be set, it is impossible to demand more of it than this. Mr. Choate has established his position in the first speech, and strengthened the ties of brotherhood and friendship that are making for the peace of the world."

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY

Chief Executive Enjoying a Much Needed Rest at Thomasville.

Thomasville, Ga., March 16.—President McKinley rested yesterday. He enjoyed the first day's relaxation from the cares of office or the fatigues of travel that he has had in many months. No politician came to see him on matters of executive administration, party policy or public office. The residents of Thomasville respected his wish that he should be free from callers or functions. The opinion of the people of Thomasville is that Mr. McKinley is in actual need of the rest he is beginning to take.

INDIANAPOLIS has plenty of street car trouble to settle now.

The people never showed more anxiety to know the provisions of new laws enacted than now.

The intent of the new law concerning the poor aided by the townships is that those who are able to work shall not be furnished help at the public expense. If it shall accomplish this it will be a great step in advance in the matter of dealing with the poor problem.

Nothing but good words are heard of the appointment of Ex-Gov. Merriam, of Minn., to be superintendent of the census, although his nomination did not reach the senate until a few minutes before final adjournment, it was unanimously confirmed. His business career leaves no doubt of his making a success of the census.

Ir Boss Crocker would yet conclude to have that great feast as anticipated and have all the different kinds of democrats present with as many different kinds of speeches he could make it an interesting meeting. He could have a speech from W. J. Bryan in favor of 16 to 1, with a reply from Grover Cleveland. He could have Arthur Sewall and Tom Watson debate and then decide which one was Bryan's running mate in '96. He could let Senator Morgan and Henry Watterson take sides and discuss Expansion. Then he might end up with a speech from Albigel and one from David B. Hill on the virtues and vagaries of the Chicago platform. He could have all sorts of democratic speeches, for he could have present all sorts of Simon pure democrats.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for anyone who will cure Send for circulars and testimonials.

Barn Burned.

The large barn on the farm of Calvin Barnes just east of town, was burned about seven o'clock last night. For quite a while the barn has been used as a rendezvous for tramps, who ate and slept there. It is supposed that the fire originated from the carelessness of some of these "gentlemen of the road." The barn was a good substantial one, but was empty. About a year ago Mr. Barnes had a house burned in the same way.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. HEART FAILURE has often been styled the cause of death in persons who have long lingered in disease. The amazing work which the heart regularly performs would certainly pre-suppose its breaking down. WAS GETTING EVEN.

A WAITER GIVES A CUSTOMER A LESSON IN IMPORTUNING.

The Man Didn't Want Anything but Pork and Beans and What Went With It, but the Waiter Called His Attention to Everything in the Place.

"Pork and beans? Yes, sir. Anything else?"

"No."

The waiter in the Madison street restaurant filled the order with alacrity. "Did you say coffee, sir?" he asked as he placed the pork and beans before the hungry guest.

"No," replied the latter.

"You'll find our coffee very nice, sir."

"This bread and butter goes with the pork and, doesn't it?"

"Yes, sir."

"And this glass of water?"

"Certainly, sir."

"Well, that's all I want."

"Yes, sir. Like to try a cup of our chocolate?"

"No. If I want anything else, I'll call for it."

The waiter stepped back, but returned presently to ask:

"Wouldn't you like to have me bring you some of our boneless codfish? It's the best in the country."

"No."

"How about roast turkey with stuffing?"

"Don't want any."

"It's first class."

"That's all right. I don't want it."

"I think you'd like our roast beef and browned potatoes."

"Didn't you hear me say that if I wanted anything else I would call for it?"

"Yes, sir."

The waiter stepped back again, but in a few moments returned to the attack.

"Excuse me for saying so, my friend, but you look as if you might be needing some kind of game. Suppose you try our jacksnipe on toast."

"Great Scott! Don't you reckon I know what I want?"

"Yes, sir. Our jacksnipe is fresh and good. Everybody needs to eat game once in awhile. Kind of tones up the system."

"I've told you I don't want any."

"Yes, sir. Rabbits ain't good this time of year or we'd have some rabbit. Squabs are about as good as wild game, though. Like to try a broiled squab on toast?"

"I'd like to eat my pork and beans in peace. Bring me some more water, will you?"

"Yes, sir. Shan't I bring you some iced tea?"

"Not any iced tea."

"It's very fine."

"Don't want it."

"It's good for some people; tones up the system."

"That's all right. Bring me that water, will you?"

"Yes, sir."

He went away and returned in an incredibly short space of time.

"Here's your water," he said, "but I think you'd find our iced coffee mighty fine."

The guest made no reply.

"Better let me bring you some iced coffee, sir."

"When I want any iced coffee or anything else, I'll let you know."

"Ever try any of our stewed mushrooms?"

"No, and I don't want to try any of your stewed mushrooms either."

"You needn't be afraid of them, sir. They're all right. We guarantee them, and there ain't any better in the United States."

"I don't."

"Some people, you know, are afraid of mushrooms. Ours are selected with great care. The man we get our mushrooms from is an expert. He raises 'em scientifically."

"Say, do you know you're a confounded nuisance?"

"I hope not, sir. I'm only trying your own way of doing business on you."

"What do you mean?"

"You run a barber shop on State street, don't you?"

"Yes. What of that?"

"You have the chair next to the front door, I think?"

"Yes."

"Well, I went to your shop last Saturday to get a shave. You shaved me. You tried to get me to have my hair cut. You told me I ought to have a shampoo. You said my hair needed singeing. You wanted to know if I hadn't better have some tonic or bay rum. You wanted to sell me a special shaving mug and brush. You bored me every minute you were shaving me, and I said to myself that if I ever got a chance at you I'd even up things. I didn't expect you quite so soon, though. Say, we're about even, ain't we?"

"We'll be a little more than even when I tell your boss about your dog-goned impudence."

"I guess you won't do that. There's a dozen of us that get shaved at your shop. You go to making any trouble and you'll lose the lot of us. You'd better take your medicine like a little—Going, are you? Well, come again. Treat you all right next time."—Chicago Tribune.

HIS FIRST THIMBLE.

Inventor John Lofting Made a Fortune From It 200 Years Ago.

"There is a rich family named Lofting in England," said a dealer in fancy articles, "the fortune of whose house was founded by so apparently insignificant a little thing as the thimble."

"The first thimbles seen in England were made in London less than 200 years ago by a metal worker named John Lofting."

"The usefulness of the article recommended it at once to all who used the needle, and Lofting acquired a large fortune and great fame in the manufacture of the new accessory to the needle-worker's art."

"The implement was then called the thumb bell and was worn on the thumb. The clumsy mode of utilizing it was soon changed, but when and why the name thimble was given the article do not appear."

"Lofting's thimbles, and, in fact, all thimbles, were made of either iron or brass, and specimens of them extant, many of which are preserved as heirlooms, are crude and clumsy looking things compared with the commonest thimbles of today, although their cost was many times as much."

"Today gold, silver, iron, ivory, steel, sometimes glass and even pearl and celluloid are utilized in making thimbles. Since art needlework became fashionable thimbles of elaborate workmanship and great value, to accompany the rich and costly implements and materials wealthy needleworkers affect, have found a large sale."

"Solid gold thimbles, carved and frequently set with diamonds, have been found none too good for some people. Thimbles made to order, with the monogram or initials of the person for whom they are intended set in precious stones, are not by any means unknown."—Philadelphia Press.

HE ATE THE SOAP.

Garland Would Have Swallowed It If It Had Killed Him.

The late Augustus H. Garland, who was attorney general under President Cleveland, was very fond of practical jokes and during his term of service in the senate frequently turned the laugh on his colleagues. Senators Voorhees and Vest, with whom he was very friendly, finally determined to turn the tables. Mr. Garland had a habit, like Voorhees, of munching candy, and Vest and Voorhees made it up between them to take advantage of his fondness for sweets to play their trick. They had some tempting looking chocolate caramels prepared, with the interior filled with brown soap. Those they took to the senate chamber and Voorhees placed them on his desk. The lid being off when Mr. Garland sauntered down the aisle he noticed them at once.

"What have you there, Dan?" he inquired.

Voorhees looked up carelessly from his writing and responded: "Caramels. Help yourself."

Garland needed no second invitation and, picking up two or three, placed one in his mouth. Steadily he chewed away, his face betraying no sign of the conflict within him. This alarmed Voorhees, who went to Vest's desk and said:

"He's eating them, Vest! What shall we do? The stuff will kill him sure!"

Senator Vest replied that it could do no more than make him sick. Garland swallowed the stuff, although he was foaming at the mouth from the soap-suds. He related the incident afterward with great gusto and said he would have swallowed it if it had killed him.—New York Sun.

Insect Notes.

The slow flapping of a butterfly's wing produces no sound. When the movements are rapid, a noise is produced which increases with the number of vibrations. Thus the house fly, which produces the sound of F, vibrates its wings 21,120 times a minute or 835 times a second, and the bee, which makes a sound of A, as many as 26,400 times or 440 times a second. A tired bee hums on E, and, therefore, according to theory, vibrates its wings only 830 times a second.

The Whole Cure For Rheumatism. It is said that in Australia there is a hotel where rheumatic patients congregate. Whenever a whale has been taken the patients are rowed over to the works in which the animal is cut up, the whalers dig a narrow grave in the body, and in this the patient lies for two hours, as in a Turkish bath, the decomposing blubber of the whale closing round his body and acting as a huge poultice. This is known as the whale cure for rheumatism.

Sweet Sleep

After Long Nights of Tossing and Torture. I was Tired but Could Not Rest. Could get no Relief Until I Took Dr. Miles' Nervine.

The suffering and agony endured by the unfortunate person who is deprived of his sleep, can only be appreciated by those to whom a merciful fate has brought the same experience. To lie in bed, minute after minute, hour after hour, night after night, unable to close an eye! To roll and toss and thresh the bed clothes—to walk the floor, back and forth, to and fro, wishing, longing, praying for sleep to come and close the blood shot eyes, and rest the weary brain! To look ahead and see looming up in the near future the horrible spectre of threatening insanity—that awful state in which a person is lost to himself and to his friends forever—these are but a part of the agonies endured by the sleepless one. For all of which there is no better, safer or surer remedy known to man than Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Nothing in the past has ever equalled it in power of building up weakened nerve tissues and giving strength to the tired body. It searches out the weak parts and gives them new life and vigor.

W. H. Heath, Pon du Lac, Wis., says: "I have had a great deal of nervous trouble, suffering both with stomach and head. The least change of weather or diet would affect me. Being a member of our orchestra I was kept up late at night until I was attacked by nervous headache and suffered terribly. I have laid awake hours upon hours at a time, unable to get rest. Have tried many other remedies and several physicians treated me, but I never could get relief until I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. That great remedy completely restored me to health."

Dr. M. O. Burkholder, Staunton, Va., says: "I am more than pleased with the results of my trial of Dr. Miles' Nervine in cases of extreme nervous debility. In one case nothing else had availed. It is the best nerve remedy I have found in low conditions attended with insomnia. The patient is soothed, and, as if by magic, starts on an upward movement rapidly. In La Grippe convalescence it is the very thing we want, as this peculiar disease seems to attack principally the nerve centers. I recommend it constantly."

"Both my wife and myself have received untold benefits from the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Sleeplessness was her trouble which was complicated with a nervous affection of the heart which gave her great uneasiness. My difficulty was of longer standing—weak kidneys, disordered stomach and inability to sleep. I also suffered a great deal from neuralgia in my head and back. After we began taking Restorative Nervine all the nervous affections disappeared and we are both enjoying better health than for several years before. I should not fail to mention Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills which we have used with gratifying results. We keep them in the house at all times, and find them the best preventive of headaches and nervousness that we ever used."

HOWARD ELLIOTT, GENERAL MANAGER,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

I have been afflicted with Rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.

MURDER NEAR BROWNSTOWN

AUGUST STUCKWISCH SHOT BY HIS BROTHER, LEWIS.

He Then Carries His Brother Into The House and Nurses Him Till He Dies.

Yesterday evening about 6 o'clock Lewis Stuckwisch who had been working for his brother August Stuckwisch, shot and killed the latter at his home about two miles east of Brownstown.

The men had been in Brownstown during the afternoon, and Lewis, at least, had been drinking a little too freely. On the way home August was riding in the wagon with Henry Vahl, and Lewis was driving his brother's team alone. As John Manion who was riding in a cart drove past them, Lewis began quarreling with Manion and calling him ugly names. August, who saw that serious trouble would likely follow, told his brother to keep quiet and then turned on him and began abusing him. August then told his brother that unless he could behave himself, he need not return to his house.

August seems to have driven on home alone with his team. Lewis soon followed and with an ax broke down the door which his brother had locked when he saw him coming. As he entered the front door armed with a knife and ax, August and his wife ran out of the back door to get away. Lewis followed and as he ran through the house he picked up the shot gun standing in the corner of the room and following his fleeing brother out of the back door, shot him in the abdomen. Then beginning to realize the terrible thing that he had done he took his coat off, wrapped up his brother's wound, carried him into the house, and did what he could for him until he died about thirty minutes later.

The murdered man was about thirty years old and leaves a wife, his first wife and child having died some time ago. The murderer is about twenty-one years old and is single. He was arrested this morning at the home of another brother about two miles south of Brownstown and taken to jail at Brownstown about eleven o'clock this morning. He claims to know nothing at all about how the murder happened, and when questioned about it, he repeatedly disclaimed all knowledge of the affair. He was given a preliminary hearing this afternoon and was bound over to court.

Building and Loan Stock.

The Cooperative Building and Loan Association will start series "P" Monday, April 3, 1899, and descriptions for the stock are now being taken through the secretary, W. F. Peter. Many of our people know from experience the value of carrying building and loan association stock either as an investment or for the purpose of paying for a home. The small payments which may be made and the long time that the association gives on its loans makes them easily within the reach of anyone who really wishes to own his home. If you are not holding any stock at this time it will be to your interest to see the secretary at once and arrange with him for some shares in the new series.

The Delineator

For April is called the spring number, and embodies a comprehensive summary of present and incoming styles in every department of dress, a choice variety of articles of sterling literary excellence and a profusion of characteristic social and household features. The charming Acadian tale, The Maid of the Drift, by Charles D. G. Roberts, will enhance the interest that attaches to the land of Evangeline. Inspiration for many a pleasant home gathering is furnished in An Easter-tide Evening, by Gladys Hyatt; and Her Birthday Party, by Edith Child, will suggest how the anniversaries may be recalled. A group of Household Subjects is embraced in A Week's Living No. 2, by Edna Witherspoon; The Possibilities of a can of Salmon, by Carrie May Ashton, and Dainty Buffet Lunches, by Helen Combs; the numerous pages devoted to millinery, lace-making, crocheting, knitting, the latest books, etc., are all interesting.

If the dog is breathing on April 1, the dollar will have to be paid no matter if the dog dies the next minute.
